

BLOG

3 Medicines Used in MAT and How They Differ

Suboxone

- Buprenorphine plus naloxone
- Eases withdrawal and cravings
- Taken under the tongue

Sublocade

- Buprenorphine once a month
- Given in the West Ashley office
- No daily dose to remember

Vivitrol

- Monthly naltrexone injection
- Used for opioid and alcohol use
- Starts after opioids are cleared

Read the full article

MAT in Charleston: Recovery Support That Respects Your Journey

hopeintegrativemed.com

(843) 737-0312

General information, not medical advice. Your provider can tell you what is right for you. If you are in crisis, call or text 988.