

GUIDE

7-OH Can Look Like Candy: 3 Things Parents Should Know

It Can Look Like Candy

- Some come as fruit-flavored gummies
- Others come as ice cream cones
- FDA: may appeal to children and teens

No Kratom Sales Under 21 in SC

- South Carolina law since July 2025
- Stores can't display it within reach of under-21s

Know What to Do in an Emergency

- Very drowsy or breathing slowly?
Call 911
- Give naloxone if you have it
- Questions? Poison Help:
1-800-222-1222

Read the full guide

What Is 7-OH? How It Is Sold, Why It Matters and Where to Get Help

hopeintegrativemed.com

(843) 737-0312

General information, not medical advice. If someone is very drowsy, hard to wake or breathing slowly, call 911 and give naloxone. For milder symptoms or questions, call Poison Help at 1-800-222-1222. If you are struggling, call or text 988.